KURT EISNER, BAVARIAN PREMIER, IS MURDERED BY COUNT ARCO VALLEY

Assassin is Then Shot by Guard and Will Die Says Report From Munich.

Prominent Figure in Germany Meets Untimely Death at Hands of Nobleman

(By Associated Press)

London, February 21.—Kurt Eisner, the Premier of Bavaria, has been shot and killed.

The Premier was killed this morning, according to a Munich dispatch received in Amsterdam, by Lieutenant Count Arco Valley.

The Count was wounded severely by a guard and is reported to be dying.

Kurt Eisner, who seized the reins of government in Bavaria after the deposition of the royal family in November, was a socialist of the more radical type and recent reports have been that he was heading a spartan movement against the moderate and conservative factions in Bavaria.

Eisner attended the international labor conference at Berne and while there attacked the majority socialists, declared himself against Bolshevism and said he knew the Germans had ill-treated French prisoners of war. He also asserted the Kaiser was directly responsible for the war.

INDEMNITY NOW HOLDS ATTENTION OF LEADERS

Serious Differences in Agreeing Upon Great Funds to be Extracted from Enemy

Some Nations Insist On Payment for Cost of War as Well as for Damages

Paris, February 21.—While the conference leaders have been awaiting the outcome of Premier Clemenceau's injury to determine what the program shall be for the immediate future, the question of fixing the great amount the enemy is to pay for reparation is taking such form before the commission on reparation that it may have to be referred to the council of the great powers and heads of the various governments, owing to the seriousness of the main issue presented.

This issue turns principally on whether the cost to the various countries in conducting the war should be included in addition to reparation for damages.

It is maintained by those urging the negative view that the communication sent to President Wilson by the allies when they first accepted the German proposal for an armistice declared specifically only for reparation and made no mention of the cost of the war. The latter, however, now has become one of the chief claims.

E. Taylor, food specialist who has just returned from Germany where he made extensive investigations in behalf of the supreme food relief council.

"Count Von Bernstorff is in charge of American affairs at the foreign office and the bureaucrats of the old school are in evidence everywhere."

Senator Sherman Introduces a Resolution to Prevent Wilson Discussing League Plan

Would Be "Unwise and Undiplomatic" Urges Sherman in Plea

(By Associated Press) Washington, February 21.—A resolution designed to prevent President Wilson from discussing publicly the proposed league of nations until he has communicated details of the plan to the Foreign Relations Committee was introduced today by Senator Sherman, republican. Consideration went over under the rules. The resolution declares that to discuss the plan and the proposed constitution before submitting the details to the Senate would be "unwise, undiplomatic and calculated to promote discord" between the government's two treaty-making powers and calls upon the President to "preserve an unbiased and impartial mind" until he has discussed the matter with the Senate.

"Most Radical Departure" Declares Borah Who Thinks People Should Vote on Proposal

Insists League Would Bring About "Entangling Alliances"

(By Associated Press) Washington, February 21.—Senator Borah, of Idaho, republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee today delivered his promised attack on the proposed league of nations and referred to it "as the most radical departure from our policies we have ever considered."

Statements made by Mr. Taft that the proposed league of nations did not contravene with Washington's doctrine against engaging with entangling alliances or the Monroe doctrine were declared to be to "the utmost degree mistaken."

"The people of the United States have the undoubted right to change their form of government and to renounce their established policies whenever they see fit. I would not oppose any change in an orderly fashion that may meet with the approval of the people. I believe, however, that whenever that radical departure from established policies is proposed the people ought to be consulted."

He also declared that before any action was taken it should be referred to a vote of the people of this country.

MOTOR TRUCK MAIL TO BE ABOLISHED

Motor Truck mail service between Columbus and Hillsboro, via of Washington C. H. and Greenfield, which was established last August, will be discontinued after March the 4th.

This route is one of a number established by the Postal Department, in an experimental way, in an effort to bring the producer and consumer into closer relationship and provide an easy method for the exchange of their products.

The excellent railway facilities of the section through which this route passes, with rural routes reaching all the remote parts, left little patronage for a Motor Truck and the small amount of mail transported did not justify its continuance, so the Postal Department has ordered the service suspended.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The truck has been coming down from Columbus each morning and reaching Hillsboro about noon, where a similar truck from Cincinnati was met and each truck then returned to its respective starting point, after exchanging mail.

INJURED LINEMAN AWARDED $10,000 FOR PAINFUL BURNS

As result of the compromise of the case of Charles L. Hampton, telephone lineman, against David R. Foran and others, receivers of the Central Union Telephone Company, that has been pending in the Pickaway county common pleas court for some time, and in which the plaintiff sought $10,000 damages for frightful burns received while at work, Hampton gets $10,000 from the defendants, and the case has been dismissed.

Hampton was trouble man for the Citizens Telephone Company and on August 20, 1917, was nearly electrocuted by coming in contact with live wires of the Ohio Utilities Company while at work on a pole in Circleville.

The plaintiff claims in his petition that the Central Union Company carelessly erected a long distance pole between the alternating system wires of the Public Utilities Company, causing one of the wires of the Citizens Telephone Company to become charged with 2700 volts of electricity, and that while at work he was crippled or life when the charged wires burned his right hand, arm, right knee and thigh to the bone.

Hampton was rescued by Bundy Hendricks, who made a noose from a rope and throwing it over the man, lowered him to the ground.

FORMAL OPENING NEW P. & D. BANK MOST AUSPICIOUS

General Public Surprised And Delighted With Attractive New Home of Well Known Bank.

Beautiful Music and Delicious Refreshments Add To Pleasure of Opening Event.

Thursday, the twentieth of February, was a proud day in the history of the Peoples and Drovers Bank and, in the formal opening of the splendid new home marked an epoch in the life of this pioneer banking institution, established as a successor to the old First National Bank, dating back to 1864. The old P. & D. Bank had literally passed away and in its place stands a magnificent monument to the progress and enterprise of the management, a real metropolitan banking institution, in handsome appearance, equipment and furnishings.

All day and well into the evening there was a steady stream of visitors, who found awaiting them the most cordial of greetings from President Joseph Hidy and the directors and officials of the bank and the interest of the occasion enhanced by attendant social features.

With the beautiful strains of harp, played by the noted Bonelli of Columbus, accompanied by violin and flute, as a musical undertone to the comments which voiced with rising enthusiasm the intense admiration of the visitors; with superb baskets of flowers, the tribute of other banks of the city and leading merchants, lending a radiant note of vivid color, and attractive girls presiding over great bowls of golden punch and serving it most generously, the opening had in it all the brilliance and pleasure of the social affair. But, adding immeasurably as did these elaborate arrangements for the entertainment of the guests, the dominant interest was the inspection of the bank.

The interior was found to be in perfect accord with the distinctive architecture of the stately stone facade and expectations were more than fulfilled. The first impression upon entering through the wide vestibule was one of stately dignity and architectural grace and a perspective which gave the effect of space and commodiousness. Above the Broadcillo marble wainscoting and counterscen rise walls tinted in the palest seafoam green, finished with cornice and ceiling of old ivory, the color scheme in combination with the mahogany furniture of the reception room, and offices of President and Cashier and the marble and bronze of the counter screen rich and beautiful.

Through opalescent sky lights of ripple amber comes a flood of soft light and the wonderful indirect lighting system diffuses a soft mellowness when the electric lights are turned on. Passing down the marble flanked corridor visitors viewed with delight the Directors room, in which the furniture is exceedingly handsome, finished in Friar gray and upholstered in black leather, consultation rooms for the transaction of private business, finished in the same soft gray and style of furniture and the ensemble of connecting rooms, telephone booths in perfect harmony of decoration and furnishings. The charming women's rest room, the decorations and the wicker furniture in soft gray and bright rose colored chintz upholsterings, a lovely basket of rose colored begonia on the desk finished in the Friar gray, was the crowning feature.

Naturally the men gave special attention to the large vault and safe—the very latest invention in yegg proof construction and the mauganese money chest and re-enforced wall protection which were main features.

Nothing was missed by the throng of guests either in general effect or detail. The contractors, Hoggson Bros., of New York and Chicago, built and furnished everything even to the clock in its marble slab heralding Washington's birthday, and the pens on the desks. The furniture was all specially made in their own factories. B. Dawber was the construction superintendent.

The present officers of the bank are: Joseph Hidy, president; J. E. McLean, vice-president; Roy T. McClure, cashier; Floyd Elliott, assisting cashier. The present directors are: Herman Jones, William H. Thornton, J. E. McLean, Frank Johnson, and Joseph Hidy.

Assisting in the reception and serving were Mrs. Herman Jones and sister, Mrs. E. C. Fetter, of Dayton, Miss Josephine Hidy, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Ruth Smith. Enid McClure presented tastefully gotten up blotters as souvenirs.

MEETINGS DRAWING NEAR A CLOSE AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH

The series of evangelistic services at Grace M. E. Church, which have been under the competent leadership of Dr. Mahood and have been under way for nearly four weeks, will come to a close Sunday night.

A free-will offering will feature the Sunday services, and the amount raised will be given to Dr. Mahood for his earnest efforts here.

No services will be held Saturday, but a men's meeting will be held at 3:00 Sunday, and Dr. Mahood will deliver a health sermon on "Facing the Facts." Boys under 14 not admitted. At the same hour Miss Mahood will address the women in the Epworth League room.

Tonight Dr. Mahood speaks on "Amusements." Thursday night he spoke on "Heaven," saying in part: "Heaven is only for overcomers. We are saved by grace but rewarded according to our works. The man who lives only for his own pleasure will be out of place in Heaven. If you want an easy dilly-dallying life live the worldly life, but if you would live a self-sacrificing heroic life live the christian life."

Christ is our manna. He said "I am the bread of life." We depend upon Him for life. He is now our hidden manna but some day we shall see Him face to face. "Make sure of this—Heaven is a place. 'I go to prepare a place for you' Jesus said. And he who made stars and suns and flaming worlds and swung them in their orbits will do His crowning work in the preparation of an eternal home for those whom He has loved so much as to die for them."

Three unusually good attractions were shown last night at the Palace, Wonderland and Colonial theatres and will have their last showings tonight. At the Wonderland Miss Geraldine Farrar and Wallace Reid, two famous screen artists star together in "The Devil Stone," one of the season's big features. At the Colonial "The Service Star," with Madge Kennedy as the star is a comedy drama of the highest quality. This attraction will remain over the week end.

Frank Keenan, one of the foremost screen stars and a very popular actor, is shown at the Palace in "Told of The Times," a story of newspaper life with lots of comedy and some serious moments thrown in.

COX'S MESSAGE STARTS A ROW AMONG SOLONS

Special Message Regarding Bill Leaving a Loophole For Hun Teaching Creates Stir

Columbus, Ohio, February 21.—(By Associated Press)—Governor Cox yesterday sent to the general assembly a special message condemning the Comings bill, which would forbid the teaching of German in public schools, but permit it in parochial and private schools.

The bill passed the house by a vote of 114 to 0 a week ago and is now in the common school committee of the senate.

Cox charges that the bill protects only the children in the public schools from the "possibility of poison from German virus" and gives parochial and private schools the preference. He says they would resent the implication which it carries.

The language of the measure, he says, is "artful, insidious and apparently deliberate in its attempt to deceive the people of the state," adding:

"The naked truth is that the ingenious phrase of this bill springs from disloyalty somewhere. Someone seeks to create a sheltered spot where treason can grow under cover of the law."

The message also says:

"I counsel with you through this message, rather than wait the exercise of the veto privilege, because I am convinced that upon reflection you will not want the history of these reconstruction days to carry a record of a legislative enactment based upon treason and passed through deception If any person in Ohio wants his child indoctrinated with Prussian creed, let our safeguards be such that he must go elsewhere for it."

House Majority Leader Beetham was absent when the message was read. On motion of Minority Leader Hopple, it was referred to the joint committee on German propaganda and ordered printed in the house journal.

Later, Beetham, who said the message was aimed at him because he is author of the amendment permitting teaching of German in parochial and private schools, moved to reconsider the motion to refer and print. It carried by strict party vote, Republicans voting for reconsideration and Democrats against.

On motion of Beetham again, it was referred to a select committee of three, to be appointed by the speaker. Democrats opposed this motion.

This committee, it is hinted, will demand of the governor an explanation of the disloyalty charges in the message.

The Comings bill, before it was amended by Beetham, provided that an elementary subject in public, private and parochial or other schools shall be in the English language, "but other languages than the English may be taught in such schools as an addition or auxiliary to the English language."

BALL PENETRATED PREMIER'S LUNG

(By Associated Press)

Paris, February 21.—In the chamber of deputies Thursday afternoon Under Secretary Deschanel said he was glad to announce that the condition of Premier Clemenceau continued to improve and that those about him seemed fully reassured.

The bullet which wounded Premier Clemenceau penetrated his lungs, it was revealed by the official statement issued shortly after noon today. The official statement reads:

"The hemorrhage which occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday demonstrated that the bullet penetrated the lungs. An X-ray examination disclosed the precise location of the bullet."

The announcement caused some anxiety in the immediate entourage of the premier at his home and the news that his condition was more serious than at first reported spread quickly throughout Paris, causing widespread expressions of sympathy. The premier, however, bore up remarkably well during the morning, refusing to return to his bed and receiving numerous callers, among whom were William G. Sharp, American ambassador, and Admiral Benson, U. S. N.

Argentina Corn

A splendidly written and instructive article in Wallace's Farmer of February 7th issue, contains much to encourage corn raisers who have been fearful that the importation of Argentine corn would mean ruinous competition to the markets of the United States.

The writer in Wallace's Farmer points out that before the war we heard little of Argentine corn because in pre-war days we had a tariff of fifteen cents a bushel which kept it out of the local markets. Now that the war is over and the tariff removed many anxious corn raisers have feared an avalanche of Argentine corn will force present prices down.

The cheering information is imparted regarding the quality of corn from Argentina which seems to guarantee against any such danger. The Argentine corn is greatly inferior to our corn—"hard as flint" and cattle can't eat it until it is ground up.

In addition to that the entire Argentine crop for export is not much more than equal to two or three Iowa counties.

The whole scare about Argentine corn, the writer in Wallace's Farmer thinks, is traceable to those who want to beat down present prices, buy in the present crop and hold for higher prices.

Cincinnati

The second city, in size, of the Buckeye state has been subjected, during the last decade, from all quarters of the state, to some very severe criticism and Cincinnati's attitude on many grave questions was such as deserved criticism.

Cincinnati has been wrong—dead wrong on the temperance question and even now since state and nation wide prohibition is a settled fact, many of her citizens, perhaps many more than a majority, still persist in clinging to the liquor interests.

But that has not been the chief trouble with Cincinnati although it has been and is had enough. Cincinnati has been wrong politically, and is still wrong politically. Not in the sense that the city and county are recognized as strongholds of one of the great political parties but in the sense that a few men still control the majority vote of the city, casting it as best serves their own personal interests just as effectually and just as certainly as they cast their own individual vote. On the temperance question and political matters Cincinnati has refused to progress and the city has suffered in failure to gain population and increase in business which justly belong to it.

But be that as it is Cincinnati's record in the war is a magnificent one—one of which any city has just cause to feel proud. The patriotism of the people of the Queen City has been one of the inspiring developments of the war. The city has made a record which would cover up all past mistakes of the voters if Cincinnati would let it. In spite of the glorious opportunity the city persists in holding on to its political ring and in submitting to domination by the liquor interests.

Cincinnati is a splendid city. It should be prosperous and progressive and would be if it would only quit hanging on to methods and interests which progressive people have long since placed among the relics of the past.

The Peak Load

Go into any great electric power house, and near the huge, humming dynamos and generators you will see a good deal of spare equipment standing idle or loafing under banked fires. When the call comes, it will spring to action and help carry the load over the top of the day's need. Without that waiting reserve the whole gigantic plant would be found wanting. If there were lessons long ago in running brooks, there are rules of life today in the machinery that serves our time. It is a man's business to build up for himself a reserve of patience, energy, and mental resources that will carry him along under any peak load that duty may impose. The grim business of war has proved that truth. If one knew all the facts, one would read those official lists of soldiers' honors, not as seen in the glowing spotlight of military heroism, but as the subdued reflection of many quiet days that built the character which time and peril have so dramatically revealed. When the hour strikes it is well for the man who is thus ready and for those about him who will then rely on his strength as sustaining their own. That lost battalion in the Argonne Forest is a case in point. Leadership, in emergency, is that quality of being able to meet the peak load. The men and peoples who have it will not suffer defeat.—Collier's Weekly.

POEM FOR TODAY

GREEN PASTURES AND STILL WATERS.

Clear in memory's silent reaches
Lie the pastures I have seen,
Greener than the sunlit spaces
Where the May has flung her green
Needs no sun and needs no starlight
To illumine these fields of mine
For the glory of dead faces
Is the sun, the stars, that shine.

More than once I count my pastures
As my life-path groweth long;
By their quiet waters straying
Oft I lay me, and am strong.
And I call each by its giver,
And the dear names bring to them
Glory from shining faces
In some New Jerusalem.

Yet, oh, well I can remember,
Once I called my pastures Pain,
And their waters were a torrent
Sweeping through my life amain!
Now I call them Peace and Stillness,
Brightness of all Happy Thought,
Where I linger for a blessing
From my faces that are nought.

Nought I fear not. If the Power
Maketh thus his pastures green,
Maketh thus his quiet waters,
Out of waste his heavens serene,
I can trust the mighty Shepherd
Looseth none he ever led;
Some where yet a greeting waits me
On the faces of my dead!

Boston Herald.

A WASHINGTON C. H. INTERVIEW

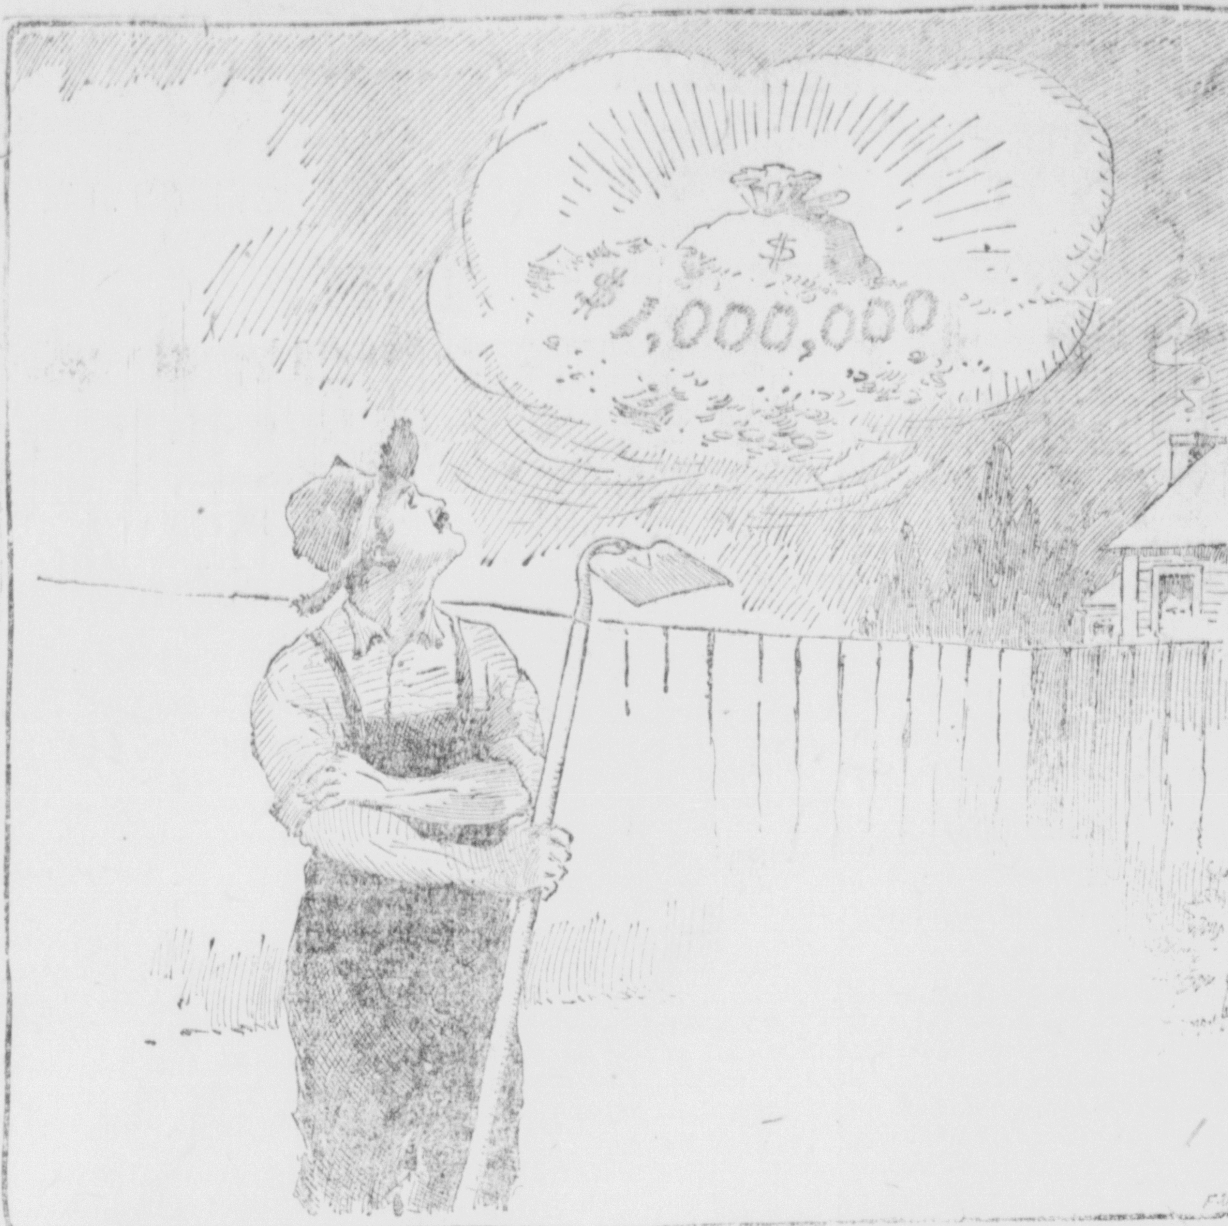

Mrs. Cramblett Tell Her Experience
The following brief account of an interview with a Washington C. H. woman four years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Mrs. J. J. Cramblett, 474 S. Fayette St., Washington C. H., says: "I was all run down and I had to give up my work. An attack of lumbago left me helpless. My back ached so much I could hardly bend over and my kidneys showed many signs of weakness. I couldn't sleep well and mornings I could hardly get out of bed. My head ached and I had such dizzy spells. I could scarcely walk. I was nearly a physical wreck. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they put me in good health." (Statement given July 31, 1913).

On August 7, 1917 Mrs. Cramblett said: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills again. Whenever I notice any symptoms of kidney trouble coming on, I use Doan's, and in twenty-four hours or less, I get fine relief."

LET'S TALK IT OVER—BY HAL COFFMAN

IF I HAD A MILLION DOLLARS

If I had a million dollars I would get fat and have the gout. I would have just as many worries—or more—than I have now. I would hire some one to do the little things that make life worth while. I would have lots of time to waste. I would get begging letters that would cause me the trouble of having them dumped into the waste basket. I would have acquaintances instead of friends. I would have six automobiles instead of one and the worry of which to ride in. I would think the income tax law an outrage and pay a lawyer twice the amount to find me a loop hole. I would hire someone to 'tend my garden. If I had griddle cakes and sausages for breakfast I would want grape fruit and toast instead, and probably note even that. I would go to bed at night and scheme how to make it TWO millions instead of one. I HAVE two hands, a head and my HEALTH. Gosh! I'm glad I haven't a million dollars.

MAKING PLANS FOR DECENNIAL CENSUS IN U. S.

Elaborate Plans Now Under Way For The Great Work of "Checking Up" People and All Property Next Year

Enumerators Will Go Forth in April of 1920

Washington, February 21.—(By Associated Press)—With hostilities at an end, the government is now laying the basis for one of its greatest peace time tasks—the decennial inventory of the United States, its people, lands, industry, and livestock that is called the census. Secretary of Commerce Redfield the other day signed the order that transferred one of the largest of the temporary war buildings put up in Washington, that formerly housed the army's department of aeronautics, to Director of the Census Rogers and his staff.

Actually, the government began the work some months ago, assembling its plans and forces. By law, the beginning of the census period of 1920 is July 1, 1919, though it will not be until a year from April that the enumerators will be set at work. It is then that every individual in America, or some one acting for the individual, will be asked the series of questions that must be answered.

There will be 29 of these questions in the 1920 census, according to the present design of Director Rogers' dummy cards, which are now being given the exhaustive study of statisticians. The more complex questionnaires that go to industrial establishments, schools, farms, and every other permanent institution of the country are likewise in the development stage, undergoing critical examination in the light of experience the government has gained in conducting 13 inventories of the kind.

Chiefly the bureau is engaged in preparing for the classification and tabulation of the vast quantity of material which will be assembled. The 1920 census tabulation will be for the first time almost completely a machine operation, conducted by means of devices useful only to the census bureau of the United States which have been invented and are now being built by men in its employ. Electric machines will first transfer the written information coming in on the enumerators' sheets to cards, not by writing, but by punching holes at proper points. Then the punched cards will be handed in their millions to another battery of machines, the tabula-tors, an amazing product of human ingenuity. E. M. Boiteaux, who devised them, has been with the census for 18 years, and is now superintending the construction of 25 machines the operation of which he will direct. These tabulators, working with smooth and silent perfection, take in 400 cards a minute, count them, reject all that are imperfect or improperly punched in any fashion, and take off the total of punch marks, assembling the final result in printed figures on handy sheets.

With these machines there is a practical assurance that the publication of the census, usually coming out a long time after the enumeration, may be more quickly at hand to guide the estimates of governmental and industrial leaders, and generally guide and demonstrate the progress of national civilization. They are being produced largely by the work of youthful apprentices from Washington schools, which have vocational sources.

AUTO THIEVES FIGHT OFFICERS

(By Associated Press)
Columbus, O., February 21.—Two automobiles, on stolen from Columbus and the other from Toledo were recovered last evening when police at Bellaire, Belmont County, engaged eight suspected thieves in a pistol fight between that city and Wheeling, W. Va., where the men succeeded in escaping.

According to word received by Police Record Clerk Martin here, the thieves had eaten supper at a Bellaire restaurant. Suspicions of a plain clothes officer were aroused. With other officers, he sought to seize the suspects, who fled in the cars. At Wheeling the cars were abandoned.

Reports showed one auto belongs to H. J. Paul, 685 City Park Avenue, stolen Feb. 14. Police are of the opinion the thieves are professionals stealing cars for profit.

FIGHTING IS STOPPED

News of Interest to Women

Miss Mazie Rowe gave pleasurable entertainment to the Thursday Kensington Club, yesterday afternoon with a few additional guests.

Potted flowers adorned the rooms and a dainty collation was served. Miss Rowe was assisted by her mother Mrs. L. N. Rowe and sister, Mrs. J. W. Fisher.

That the women of the McNair Memorial Church are responding to the urgent call of the committee for Devastated France is shown in the splendid work they are doing. Already they have made and given to this worthy organization five comforts, and one woolen blanket and are continuing the good work.

In response to previous needs these women have co-operated and worked incessantly for the Red Cross doing their part faithfully.

Half a dozen women who are close friends have formed the habit of celebrating their birthdays together and on Thursday the birthday of Mrs. George Bryant, of W. Court street, was the occasion of one of these gatherings at her home.

Mrs. Bryant served a most appetizing bean supper, and the evening was greatly enjoyed.

A color scheme of red, white and green, introducing suggestions of George Washington's birthday, was prettily used. The center table decorations were red and white carnations and greenery, and at the ends were, red candles under green shades. The place cards were cleverly designed in hearts and cherries by the daughter of the house, Georgia.

Instead of a big birthday cake individual cakes lighted with red tapers were at each cover.

Aside from patriotic and humane interest in the work of the Red Cross the magazine is well worth while. It has on its corps writers who are experts in their line, who are directly in touch with the history making of the past few years and have been on the ground to see things for themselves.

ARE DANCING OFF DEPRESSION OF WAR

Chicago, February 21.—America's interest in dancing has quickened since hostilities ended, according to leading dancing masters, who declare that the public, young and old, are literally dancing off the depression of war.

Since early December, record crowds have filled public and private halls, clubs, cafes and other places where dancing is permitted. Similar conditions obtain in other cities, the masters say. Dancing classes, in many cases including father, mother, and children of one family, have increased to six times the number they contained during the war months.

There are no new dances to which the increased interest may be attributed. Indeed the experts predict that the pre-war dances—the one step, waltz and fox trot—will continue to be the standards for the next ten years, for they have perfect rhythm, and only dances with perfect rhythm can survive.

Of course, temperamental America, ever craving variety, must have its freak steps, twists, turns, dips and slides, but these are merely passing fancies, the masters explain. They add that these steps, silly as they seem, take thought and there cannot be dancing rhythm where thought is required.

LAST SAD RITES OVER NOTED MAN ARE HELD TODAY

Funeral of R. C. Hunt Held This Morning at Late Home, Largely Attended And Body is Laid to Rest In Mausoleum.

Beautifully impressive and in keeping with the life he lived were the funeral services over all that was mortal of R. C. Hunt, at the family residence Friday morning at ten o'clock. The house was crowded with relatives and friends, gathered to pay their final tribute of respect.

Mr. Hunt died in the communion of the Episcopal Church and the full ritualistic service of the church was read by the rector of St. Andrew's, Rev. David W. Barre.

Characteristic of the simple, straightforward life of the man, were the services at his death. Dignified and simple, with an utter absence of display, setting forth the quiet, calm assurance of Christian faith and the confident hope of the immortality of the soul, the impressive burial office of the church breathed the assurance, symbolized by the gleaming candles at the head and foot of the casket, of the presence of God and the reality of the Christian faith.

In the quiet crypt of the Washington Mausoleum the body was laid away and "finis" was written to the earthly life of R. C. Hunt. His monument is in the hearts of those who knew him and loved him, and there remains in the world in which he lived and worked—in the far Orient, in the mighty mountains of South America, in the heart of America's great metropolis and the Cumberland eternal hills—the record of a life that counted in the service of humanity. Staunch builder, fearless worker on the far-flung edges of civilization, he has followed the winding trail into the sunset, and this community mourns the passing of a good citizen who filled well his place in life and pays silent tribute to the memory of a real man.

Acting as pallbearers were: Mr. F. T. Johnston of Detroit, Mich.; Messrs. Roy Hagler, Wert Shoop, George Fabb, Carl Mallow, G. L. Spragg.

Relatives and friends here for the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Wells, Catawba, Va.; Mr. George Hunt, Mr. T. J. Townsend and Mrs. J. L. Orendorf, Bowling Green, Ky.; Mr. F. T. Johnston and son Durand, Detroit, Mich.; Dr. Guy Saxton, Toledo; Mr. Rufus Sever, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. H. B. Patterson, Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myers, Woodland.

REMODELING THE ARCADE GARAGE

ANNUAL INSTITUTE AT BUENA VISTA VERY BENEFICIAL

Room Thronged Each Session of Most Successful Farmers' Institute Which Ended Thursday Evening.

Event Pronounced Best Institute Ever Held At Buena Vista.

The Fourteenth Annual Farmers Institute of Buena Vista held in the M. E. Church Wednesday and Thursday, is being acclaimed as the most successful in its annals, with remarkably large crowds at every session, excellent state speakers and interest reaching the high water mark. The President, Mr. W. M. Patton, and the assisting officers are being handed quite a number of neat bouquets upon new features introduced, notably the school session, and the splendid management of the entire institute.

Not a session but drew from a wide radius both men and women and the school representation from three or four schools was very large. The programs were fine and practical and men and women co-operated to make them the best possible.

The feature of the opening session Wednesday morning was the school session and exercises by the schools. Mr. J. W. Nicodemus, one of the state speakers, addressed the pupils in a way that held their attention and stirred their ambition. He impressed the advantage of graded schools.

Another state speaker, G. P. Aldrich, made a good address on "The Farmer and His School."

Miss Violet Hawkins played a prettily piano solo.

Messrs. John Minton, L. C. Conner and Harry Limes were appointed a committee on nominations.

The afternoon program was opened with a well played piano solo by Miss Louise Hatchery and followed by an address by J. W. Nicodemus on "Saving Soil Moisture." He advocated early plowing and the turning under of the refuse, and frequent discing. Miss Helen Taylor, seven years old, delighted the audience with her vocal solo. "Co-operation the chief factor in Community Effort" was the subject of Mr. Aldrich's address along the line of farmers organization.

The Wednesday evening session included a talk by Mr. Nicodemus, a piano duet exceedingly well played for school children by Mildred Conner and Juereita Stoops.

Miss Violet Hawkins added to the program an entertaining reading. Thursday's sessions included addresses by Mr. Nicodemus and Miss Nellie Wood, an interesting state speaker, and general discussion.

At the morning session Mrs. Neal Conner played a beautiful piano solo and Ralph Theobald made such a hit in his song that he was recalled.

The afternoon session was of special importance to women and Miss Woods gave valuable instruction in her talk on "Women in the Home." Mrs. Opal Bower's solo was one of the most enjoyed musical numbers of the program.

Mrs. Marguerite W. Beck, always a popular reader, so charmed and entertained the crowd that she was twice recalled.

Miss Hazel Leaverton, of Leesburg, was also recalled after her solo. Miss Louise Coffey gave a pleasing reading.

Mr. Nicodemus talked on "Speculation and Legislation Relative to the Prices of Farm Products."

The election of officers resulted as follows: N. P. Fouch, President; Harry Anderson, Vice-President, B. H. Coffey, Treasurer, Wallace Binegar.

Secretary; Executive Committee, Homer Garrett, Walter Sollars, E. P. Cockerill, A. C. Zimmerman, Henry Partell, Mrs. Hattie Barnett, Mrs. Eva Theobald, Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ella Haines.

The officers who so ably put on the institute were W. M. Patton, President S. M. Roush, vice-president; B. H. Coffey, treasurer; A. C. Zimmerman, secretary. Executive committee: Wallace Binegar, Henry Page, Harry Anderson, E. P. Cockerill, B. H. Coffey, Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Theobald.

The women furnished splendid meals each day in the town hall.

UNUSUAL ACTION IN PROBATE COURT

A case somewhat out of the ordinary has been filed in the Probate court, the object being to dispose of certain real estate that at the present time is not bringing in proper returns, and the sale of which the plaintiff declares is to the advantage of his wards, who also are his children.

The style of the suit is Jesse C. Hankins, guardian, against his wards Harford H. Hankins, Avan Nicholas Hankins, Jesse Kermit Hankins, Albert Marvin and Lois Hankins Slaughter.

Plaintiff states that on April 8, 1918 by her will, Mary E. Long, of Greene county, left to her daughter, Florence Jessie Hankins, wife of plaintiff for her lifetime, certain real estate in Greene county, and at death of Mrs. Hankins to go to her children.

Part of the real estate consists of lots in Jamestown and a 34 acre tract in Silvercreek township, in Greene county.

The action is merely a friendly, formal legal proceeding necessary to bring about sale of the property involved.

DEATH SUMMONS ADDIE E. ENGLE

Addie E. Engle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engle, of the Snowhill pike, passed into the eternal peace Friday afternoon at a few minutes past two o'clock, at the age of twenty years.

For the past year the young girl had been in poor health and an attack of the influenza three months ago was too severe for her frail body to combat.

Much sorrow attends Miss Engle's death and friends sympathize deeply with the bereaved family. No burial arrangements have as yet been made.

ARCTIC JOURNEY OF TOMMIES IS ACCOMPLISHED

Reinforcements Arrive on Archangel Front After Long Journey Through Frozen North

1200 Miles Through Woods and Over Frozen Tundras Finished

(By Associated Press) Archangel, February 21.—An arctic journey of probably the greatest magnitude since the famous Klondike gold rush, has brought additional British troops to the Archangel front to reinforce the greatly outnumbered troops to fight the Bolsheviks.

Hundreds of soldiers in single file over frozen tundra and along roads cut through pine forests completed the most difficult part of their 300 mile trip in 12 days.

The trip was planned and directed by members of Sir Ernest Shackleton's An-Artic expedition and was a signal success, Sir Ernest himself, although not participating in the journey to the front, arrived at Archangel in an ice-breaker with the first detachment of reinforcements.

FARM NOTES

Chinch Bugs Present.

Chinch bugs are present in plentiful numbers in the entire northwestern quarter of Ohio. They are passing the winter in sheltered places in the dense grass along the edges of infested cornfields and in the corn husks and stalks lying on the ground. Many are also found in the leaves and woodlots which are in old cornfields. Specialists of the College of Agriculture say that burning dense grass and leaves will do much to prevent these bugs from reaching wheat fields in April where the new brood develops. Grass has not been dry enough, yet, but during the first warm days of spring much of this grass can be fired.

Community Breeding.

"Community and Co-operative Breeding of Farm Animals" is the title of a new bulletin just issued by the Ohio State University. The author is C. S. Plum, head of the department of animal husbandry. Among the topics treated are the advantages of community breeding, a brief history of community breeding including the mention of successful efforts in Ohio, methods of organization and a constitution of a breeders' association. Copies may be had without cost of the Agricultural College Extension Service, Columbus.

Circular on Hotbeds.

Persons desiring to make a hotbed or cold frame may obtain a general circular on this subject without cost on application to the Agricultural College Extension Service, Columbus. A list of other bulletins published by the agricultural college and of interest at this time may also be had on request.

Paris, February 21.—The need for revictualing Germany is really urgent, according to the report just made by a group of 14 British officers, who visited various parts of Germany recently for the purpose of conducting a special official investigation of the situation. The officers declare that the country is living on its capital as regards food supplies, and that either famine or Bolshevism—probably both—will ensue before the next harvest if outside help is not forthcoming. The needs for fats is especially urgent.

"It is still impossible to gauge the period within which Germany's military power could revive, although there is no immediate danger on this score," says the report. "The social and political condition of Germany is sufficiently stable to guarantee the orderly distribution of food, but so long as Germany is still an enemy country which has not signed peace, it would be inadvisable to remove the menace of starvation by a too sudden abundant supply of food."

The officers believe that the allotment of foodstuffs could be carefully controlled, but add that, provided they are delivered to authorized representatives of the central government at a port of entry or a frontier station, there would seem to be no reason for anxiety as to their ultimate equitable distribution.

The chief places visited by these officers were Berlin, Munich, Hamburg, Hanover, Leipzig, Dresden, Magdeburg and Cassel. Unrest and disturbances are said to be diminishing, owing to the more stable political conditions and the firm line adopted by Gustav Noske, minister of defense, whose position has been greatly strengthened against the Spartacan movement by the large combined Social-Democratic majority in the new assembly.

At the same time, unemployment and the cost of living are on the increase. The number of unemployed in Berlin is reported to be more than 200,000 and is increasing by 5000 a day.

DEMobilizing SERVICE FLAGS LEFT IN WINDOWS

Unique Movement Under Way
in Columbus Expected to Spread

Columbus, Ohio, February 21.—(By Associated Press)—Beginning today Columbus is going to have a service flag demobilization lasting three days. Upon the plea of the Red Cross and other war work agencies, Columbus citizens did not take down their service flags when the boys came home, and they don't intend to leave them in their windows and public places until they finally disappear, weather beaten, tattered and unnoticed.

Today all Columbus schools, with appropriate exercises, are demobilizing their service flags. Tomorrow the stores and factories will lay away service emblems, and Sunday churches will follow suit. The climax will come Sunday afternoon when the huge community service flag of Franklin county will be taken down at Memorial Hall.

In demobilizing the flags, service bars will be pinned across the stars which represent boys returned home. For those who have fallen, gold stars will replace the blue. It is planned to repeat these service flag ceremonies as more of the boys come home. Other such ceremonies probably will be held on Decoration Day and the Fourth of July. Private homes have been asked to sew service bars on their service flags.

FESS DROPS OUT OF SPEAKER RACE

Washington, February 21.—(By Associated Press)—Representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, last night announced his withdrawal from the Republican contest for the speakership of the house at the next Congress. His action left the race between Representatives Mann of Illinois and Gillett of Massachusetts.

"In the interest of party solidarity dependent upon continued harmony which now characterizes the party," said Mr. Fess' statement, "I have withdrawn from the speakership contest and hereby release my friends from any and all pledges in support. My action is wholly based upon my sense of duty to the party, which is paramount to every other consideration."

Supporters of Mr. Gillett declared that Mr. Fess' withdrawal made the election of the Massachusetts representative a certainty, but partisans of Mr. Mann refused to concede defeat. Mr. Gillett is leading Mr. Mann by 20 votes.

THE HEROIC SACRIFICES OF FRANCE

Never in the world's history has any nation ever sacrificed so heroically of its blood and treasure than has France in the present world conflict. Her great peasant population have suffered and bled for democracy with undying fortitude. America also owes these people a great debt of gratitude for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal disorders which it is reported has already saved many American lives and prevented thousands of surgical operations. Geo. H. Mayr, for years a leading Chicago chemist, imports and sells it in this country under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

Peas are not unlike any other crop, but you know that if you wish to produce a good crop of peas, corn, oats, etc., you cannot expect to harvest a good crop unless the crop is planted in good ground, and the soil is adapted to the crop. Peas being a leguminous plant add to the soil. It takes good ground well drained. It is the duty of our Field Inspector to go into the matter fully and assist you, for that reason we do not want you to grow peas on land not adapted to them, for it would not only be unprofitable to you, but also a loss to us. That is why we exercise the greatest care and want your judgment and experience also in the growing of our crops. Please bear in mind in quoting these averages on peas, these growers produced a second crop on the same land, such as sweet corn and field corn. To insure a healthy stand of alfalfa or clover is by the growing of peas.

Our Inspector, Mr. Harry Hyer, is now in the field contracting pea acreage for this season and will call upon you. However, any information desired, in case he should fail to reach you, you can call by phone at the Factory, or our branch office, located with the Edgar Snyder Insurance Company.

MISSIONARIES FIND

"WOLF BOY" OF INDIA

This little boy was actually found living with a pack of wolves in India. An Englishman while hunting ran down a pack of wolves in a cave and found a human child among them. The Englishman killed the wolves and took the naked youngster, who was well nourished, to the Methodist Century Commission, at Allahabad, India, where he is being cared for and taught civilized ways. It is believed the boy was the child of one of the temple women at Brindabana, India, near the jungle where he was found. She probably left him to die, this cautious method of getting rid of unwelcome offspring being all too common in India. The unfortunate youngster was no doubt rescued and suckled by a female wolf, whose maternal instinct was stronger than that of the real mother.

Tired, Nervous Women What You Need is Vinol

The reason we recommend Vinol so strongly for such conditions is because it is a non-secret remedy which contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a run-down system and replace weakness with strength.

Glasgow, Jct., Ky.
"I was suffering from a nervous breakdown—loss of flesh and poor appetite so I could hardly drag around and do the work for my family. My doctor prescribed Vinol. It not only made me well and strong but I have gained in weight."—Mrs. S. M. Gray.

Milwaukee, Wis.
"I was weak, nervous, all run down, no appetite and had taken different medicines without benefit. A friend advised me to try Vinol. It gave me a wonderful appetite, I sleep well, have gained in weight and am now strong and well."—Mrs. E. Strey.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

DYE-MAKING IN U.S. IS ASSUMING BIG PROPORTIONS

Nothing Further to be Feared From German Monopoly of Dyes

Chicago, February 19.—(By Associated Press Correspondence)—Due to war's demand for dyestuffs, the United States practically doubled her output, and in the next three years will be a close competitor of Germany as the largest dye making country in the world, according to Robert Alfred Shaw, vice president of the National Aniline and Chemical Company, Inc., and a director in the American Manufacturers' Export Association.

He said attention is being given to development of foreign markets and branch offices of large American concerns. American dye manufacturers not only supplied the enormous textile demands due to the war, but also the need of the American army and navy, Mr. Shaw said. In addition, the American exports in 1918 were valued at more than $10,000,000.

Quantity was used by the government during the war, but now closer study will be given to different colors, he said. "Before the war Germany was producing 900 colors and America is now making 150 of these colors and they are type for type equal to their German prototype."

"The export trade is a matter to which we are giving deep thought," Mr. Shaw continued. "We are establishing offices in the far east and elsewhere at a heavy expense, but we intend to place American dyes everywhere. To this end we will need help from many sources. It is perhaps not generally known that German export goods were subsidized by the German railroads to the extent of 25 percent in freight reduction." Overseas freight, he said, were important matters to be dealt with.

"It is assumed that the American textile trade intends to support the American dye-stuff industry," said Mr. Shaw. "The world now regards manufacture of dyestuffs as a pivotal industry and that each large nation must be self-dependant. England has adopted a license system which precludes the importation of colors that its own producers can make."

"Right now, however, it is of great importance to the American textile manufacturer that the American dye-stuffs trade should develop its export outlet in order that costs for American dyes may be kept on a parity with products of foreign manufacture."

HE WOULD GIVE HOME TO WORKERS

SENATOR W. M. S. KENYON

Senator William S. Kenyon, of Iowa has introduced a bill providing for study and a report to Congress on a plan to enable every American worker to own his own home, according to a report from Washington. This is the second of the progressive Senator's "industrial welfare" bills. Senator Kenyon's idea is that the Government should extend aid to the workers, to the extent of financing them in much the same way as aid is now given farmers, under the Farm Loan act. "Such a policy, if inaugurated on a sound basis and wisely administered by the Government would erect a bulwark against Bolshevism and unrest," said the Senator.

AUSTRALIA'S WAR LOSSES

Melbourne, February, 21.—Australia's war dead number 58,035 out of a total voluntary enlistment of 499,000 men. Three hundred and thirty-six thousand Australian soldiers were transported overseas.

COBLENZ LOSSES REACHED 1033

Coblentz, January 23.—(By Mail)—Coblentz, a city of more than 50,000 inhabitants, lost a total of 1,033 men killed in the war, according to German army estimates which reached the Army of Occupation headquarters recently. In the four years of war 11,723 men from Coblentz were drafted into the German army. Several thousands of these already have returned and many have taken up their trades where they left off in 1914.

Since the armistice was signed 6,532 men of Coblentz have been discharged from the German army, and every day additional soldiers are returning to civil life in the district now occupied by the Third American Army.

BERGER GIVEN TWENTY YEARS

Chicago, February 21.—A maximum sentence of 20 years in Leavenworth prison was imposed by Federal Judge Landis Thursday on Congressman-elect Victor L. The five men convicted of conspiracy to obstruct the draft in violation of the espionage act succeeded in obtaining release on $25,000 bail from Judge Alschuler and declared they would carry their legal fight to the United States supreme court.

GIANT OF THE AIR BUILT BY HUNS IS READY FOR TRIAL

Huge Plane Measuring 165 Feet From Tip to Tip is Constructed by Germans

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, February 18.—If the war had lasted a few months longer Germany was prepared to surprise the world with an enormous airplane. The new giant of the air, which was planned by Harold Wolf, an engineer will have its first trial at Dohertitz with in a few days.

The new machine is nearly 165 feet from wing tip to wing tip, and stands more than 23 feet high. It has six motors, with a total of 1,800 horse power, driven by four propellers, two of which are forward and two aft. Each of the propellers has four blades. Two of the motors, it is said, can stop simultaneously without affecting any of the propellers or having any result except to reduce the speed of airplane.

Apart from its dimensions and power the new airplane not only is equipped with devices enabling the pilots to know at all times their altitude and angle of elevation, but also with devices to tell the absolute as well as relative direction, which, it is believed will make flying possible on the darkest nights and in the thickest fog.

The device for determining the absolute direction consists of an instrument adapted to receiving messages from various wireless stations and is capable of such adjustment that a message from any particular station can be heard only when the device is turned in that direction.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY GEORGE MCMANUS

OH! OUR SOCIAL CAREER IS ENDED! WHY DID I EVER LET MY HUSBAND BRING HIS LOW BROW FRIEND TO DINNER?

MAGGIE—ARE YOU CRYIN' OR TRYIN' TO SING?

YOUR FRIEND HAS DISGRACED US AT THE DINNER TABLE.

WHAT'S THE MATTER? I TOOK HIS KNIFE AWAY FROM THE TABLE BEFORE THE DINNER STARTED.

YES—BUT DID YOU SEE WHAT HE DID WITH THE DESSERT?

HE TRIED TO BLOW THE FOAM OFF THE CHARLOTTE RUSSE.
